

The British School of Barcelona

Alumni

BSB Alumni is an international network of BSB graduates which aims to foster and maintain a powerful sense of belonging within the growing community of The British School of Barcelona.

The collaborative spirit of BSB Alumni brings together professionals from different fields to share ideas, expertise and career advice, as well as memories and achievements.

Get involved

BSB Alumni offers you an opportunity to extend your network of contacts, both professionally and socially, while participating in a varied programme of activities and events throughout the year.

There are many ways you can get involved: by providing an insight into university life; sharing your knowledge and specialist skills; inspiring current students, or helping organise events...

Make the most of BSB Alumni to develop your professional soft skills, meet new people from a variety of backgrounds and stay connected with the school!
