This camp focuses on projects that combine disciplines such as 3D Design, Virtual and Augmented Reality, based on the interests of the participants. Following the scientific method, the main goal of the VR Camp is to foster team work, active construction and guided discovery to bring participants' ideas to life.

Mars Odyssey 3D is an exciting adventure! Through their 3D glasses they will discover new virtual landscapes where they will be able to design and manipulate objects and buildings through CoSpaces, explore mysterious territories in Minecraft Education and give life to a new colony in which they will be the protagonists thanks to their technological skills.

In this camp, children learn the basic skills and technique of a variety of sports through recreational games, skills circuits, technification, cooperation and competition, with a special focus on balance, agility or jumping.

Following the WAVE® methodology, the coaches gamify the workouts to improve physical, intellectual and social skills of the children. This method has a great power of attraction, so all their experiences, training, and moments are transformed into meaningful learning, obtaining maximum motivation and performance.
